Naples, Sept. 22.

THE 16th of this Month the Ceremony was perform'd of uncovering the Equestrian Statue of King Philip V. in the Square of Jesus. The Viceroy repair'd thither with a numerous Cavalcade of the Persons of chief Quality, and Magistrates; tho' it happen'd to rain hard that day. He caus'd a great Number of Medals to be thrown among the People; after the Ceremony was perform'd, Te Deum was sung; and at Night there were Illuminations, Bonfires, and all other usual Expressions of publick Joy.

Rome, Sept. 26. Several Conferences have been privately held of late, between Cardinal Janson and the Ambassdor of Venice, the Subject of which, is suppos'd to be the present Condition of Affairs in Italy. That Cardinal frequently presses the Pope very earnestly to enter into certain Measures with the other Potentates of Italy, to hinder Prince Eugene's taking Winter Quarters in any of their Territories; but his Holiness having t'other Day held a Congregation about it, several Cardinals advised him not to concern himself in that Affair. We shall see in a short time, whether Cardinal Janson will succeed better in another Request he has made to the Pope, viz. to lay his Injunction upon the Clergy of Catalonia, and other Provinces of Spain, of which King Charles III. may make himself Master, not to acknowledge him for their Sovereign, seeing they are under an Oath of Fidelity to King Philip V. and to work the more upon his Holiness, he represented to him the Example he himself had lately set, in forbidding the Arch-bishops and Bishops of Poland, to acknowledge any other King than King Augustus.

Ratisbon, Oct. 3. The young Peasants of Bavaria flying out of the Country, lest they should be forc'd to list themselves in the Service of the Emperor, Count Lewenstein, who commands in that Electorate for the Emperor, has given Order for keeping a good Guard in all the Passages; and stopping all such Persons as are fit for Service. 'Tis said 16000 Men of the Imperial Army, are to Winter in that Electorate, to secure it from any new Commotions. We have a Report here that the Heads of the Malecontents, have refus'd to enter upon a Treaty of Accommodation with the Emperor, unless he will first recall his Troops out of Hungary, and acknowledge Prince Ragotski for Prince of Transilvania.

Hague, Oct. 16.

The Substance of the Resolution pass'd by the Noble and Potent Lords, the States of the Province of Utrecht, the 14th of August 1705, for excluding the Stadtholder of Friseland, out of the Council of State.

'The Resolution of the Council of the Town of Utrecht, of the 10th of this Month, inserted in the Minutes of Yesterday, concerning some Lords appearing and taking Place, as Stadtholders and Governours of particular Provinces, in the Assembly of the Council of State, being taken in no Deliberation; and it being thereupon observ'd that their so doing, was contrary to the present Constitution of the Republick, and that for good and weighty Reasons, there is no Stadtholder chosen in this Province: But that on the contrary, on the 27th of April 1702, it was determin'd afresh, That the Order and Form of Government, which had been resolv'd on in the Year 1651, and observ'd from that time to the Year 1702, should be confirm'd anew, and practis'd accordingly; and that therefore it cannot be allow'd without manifest Injury and Grievance, to this and the other Provinces, that have no Stadtholder, that the Province of Friseland should introduce their Stadtholder into the Council of State; where, by his Presence as well as his Vote, he would over-awe, and sway the Resolutions of this and the other Provinces, to the Subversion of their Immunities, and to the Destruction of the Friendship that ought always inviolably to be maintain'd and kept up among Allies so strictly ty'd together; in regard the Province of Friseland, the Country and Towns together included, with the Addition of their Stadtholder, would have Three of the then 13 Votes in the Council of State; whereas this Province has hitherto had but one Vote there: So that the Provinces of Friseland and Groningen, would in all the Deliberations, not only have the Advantage of all the Provinces, Holland excepted, but even be equal to Holland itself. That it never was the Meaning or Intention of the United Provinces, that the Province of Friseland should bring their Stadtholder into the Council of State, if all the other Provinces for Reasons of State, should not resolve to chuse a Stadtholder; because, otherwise every Province would not have the like Power and Advantage in voting; and that 'tis notoriously manifest, that all the Laws and Maxims of this free Republick, are establish'd on the Basis or Foundation of Equality. All these Reasons having been maturely weigh'd and consulted upon, 'tis unanimously thought good, and resolv'd by the States of this Province, That the Lords deputed on Behalf of this said Province, to assist at the Assembly of the States General, do declare that this Province will not consent that any Man by Virtue of his being chosen Stadtholder, or Governour of Friseland, or of any other Province, to under any other Pretext what-whatsoever, without the free Consent of all the United Provinces, shall be introduc'd, or admitted into the Council of State; and the said Deputies shall make known the aforesaid Resolution to the other confederate Provinces in the most proper and effectual manner, that it may be actually put in Execution, and practis'd accordingly; nor shall any Infringement or Invasion against it, either by Industry, Cunning, or otherwise, be allow'd or suffer'd: And 'tis further thought good, and resolv'd to send this Resolution in Writing to the aforesaid Deputies of this Province, to be by them communicated and made known to the Assembly of their High Mightinesses, as soon as possible.
